FOR GOVERNOR, JOHN W. DANIEL, OF LYNCHBURG. POR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, JAMES BARBOUR, OF CULPEPER. FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL. P. W. McKINNKY, OF FARMVILLE. FOR THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES. JUDGE CHARLES E. STUART.

MONDAY KYENING, OCTOBER 3

A fair sample of the means resorted to by th Mahoneites to win the negro vote is afforded by the speech of Mr. Fernald in another column of to day's Gazette. Mr. Fernald is one of the few carp ab ggers who remain in the State, and heremains only because he continues to hold offin; but that he has lost none of the train that readered his class add us to the people whom they pillaged and upon whom they fattened, is made evident by the case with which he falls into his old habit, when coasion off is a favorable opportunity, of incining the negroes to hate their whire neighbors, upon whom they sore distress from the evils of earpetbagism. She was happy in the belief that she had forever escaped the danger of their recurrence, Lut is sadly d suppointed to find that they again threaten her in all their gravity in the gaise of

"Now we say to the rank and fite of republi-cane, do not be misled. Take the advice of your teaders, and don't vote for this Mahone ricket. Our two republican Congressmen advise this c urae; Ganeral Wickham gives the same coun sel, and Han, George Ryo unites with them in lis opinion. These are our recognized leaders, they are not federal officers, holding commisclose that can be taken away if they dare maintwo public credit, or are subject to the beck and call of a mebody else. Those republicans who advise differently, rest assured, are in office drawing large salaries, who don't want to lose their own pesitions. That being the c so, they are not safe advisors."

Senator David Davis is spoken of as likely to have the position of Attorney General offered him by the President. Should Judge Davis land himself to any such bargain, he will justly forfeit the confidence now reposed in him by a large majority of the people of the country.

Telegrans from New York state that Gen. Mahone had a long interview with the President last Saturday, and that it is an assured fact that he will vote for the reorgan zation of the Secate in the republican interest. Of course he will, and nobody who knows him has ever mained for one W. L. Fernald, U. S. Internal thought he would do otherwise. The Senate wing of the Capitel is rapidly assuming the appearance it wears during the session of Congress. The Senate chamber is almost ready for occupation; the committee rooms are ready, and nearly all the officers of the Senate and the clerks of the committees have arrived, though not actious to begin work. The impression is that the session will not last more than a few days-that the President hepes and believes it will not be prolonged beyond that time-those who talk with him confidently assert without hesitation. The Senate republican cancus has been called to meet at ten o'cleck next Saturday morning.

"There was scarcely anything doing in Virginia bonds, the few sales being made at lower prices. Consols sold down to 81t. Ten Porties fluctuated between 53t and 53. Virginia Peelers were quoted 39 to 41. Peeler detached coupons sold at 21. West Virginia Deferred quoted at 18t 19t 21 and transportations. 18to 19, and tax-receivable coupons sold at 9.3

We learn that there is upwards of half a million dollars in the Treasury to day and all current expenses
